Data security measures

The data manager states that every measure has been taken to prevent loss of data and publicity of data to any third party.

The costumer's rights throughout data management

Throughout data management you have to rights of:

information,

data correction,

deleting data,

locking data,

protesting.

Throughout the process the costumer has the rights to inquire about the shared data. In this case the data manager is obligated to give the information in written form to the costumer in the following 25 days. This contains the type of information, the period of time in which the data is being stored before deleting it and the number of third parties who have access to it. During this process the costumer can request data correction as well which has to be fulfilled on the data manager's end in the following 15 days. The right of deletion does not matter if a higher law obligates the manager to keep the data for a longer period of time.

The costumer can request a data lock if complete deletion would hurt the costumer's rights. You can only have your data locked until the reason for locking it up exist. After that it will have to be deleted.

You can protest against managing your data if:

-the process is only necessary for the data manager itself or/and a third party

-if the data management is for commercial promotion or gallup poll.

In case of protesting the data manager investigates your petition and informs you of the decision on 15 days. If the data manager decline the costumer's request for correction, deleting or data locking. In this case the costumer has to be informed in 25 days in written form with reasoning attached.

Possibility of legal remedy

If the costumer believes that the data manager has violated a law regarding processing the costumer's personal data the costumer can start an investigation by handing in a petition to the Hungarian National Data Protection and Information Liberty Authority (address: Hungary 1530 Budapest, Pf.: 5 ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu). You can also turn to court with the case if you would like to.
